

Kinected | NYLA Scholarship for the Kane School Teacher Training Program Scholarship Application

About The Kane School Teacher Training Program at Kinected—

Kinected is an integrative movement studio and education center. With a world class faculty of teachers ranging from physicians to anatomy experts and comprehensive resources for the study of anatomy, movement and injuries, Kinected provides movement professionals with enriching ways to advance their careers. It is home to the Kane School Teacher Training Program—a rigorous program known worldwide for its anatomy based approach and integration of classic Pilates principles with a modern, clinical perspective on the human body. The Kane School Teacher Training Program goes beyond choreography to explain why exercises work; students not only learn classic Pilates repertoire, but also delve deeply into biomechanics, postural imbalances and practical applications for common injuries.

About the Scholarship

Awarded to one recipient each year, the Kinected NYLA Scholarship covers tuition for Core Muscle Anatomy (the prerequisite for Comprehensive Pilates Mat), Comprehensive Pilates Mat, and Basic Training (Equipment Phase I & II) workshops. The Scholarship also includes funding for all class and private session packages required for program completion. Training must commence within one year of receiving the scholarship and the scholarship recipient must enroll in the Core Muscle Anatomy workshop offered on February 12th & 19th, 2012.
